Situated on the sea front with extensive views of the North Sea in the delightful seaside resort of Lowestoft in Suffolk the Grade 2 listed building is the double-fronted centrepiece of Kirkley Cliff. It offers first rate holiday accommodation to hotel standards.

The Centre was founded as a memorial to the national hero Field Marshal Lord Kitchener of Khartoum and was opened in 1919.

The Centre now offers holiday accommodation exclusively to men and women who have served in the armed or merchant services and their partners.

The Centre is open from April to October and has centrally heated en-suite twin bedded rooms. Two of the en-suite rooms have been converted to have walk-in showers.

Fixtures, fittings and decor are maintained to a high standard. There are two TV lounges, one reading lounge and an air-conditioned dining room on the ground floor and guest bedrooms are on the first and second floors. A lift provides easy access to all floors. Tea and coffee are available throughout the day on a self-service basis in the dining room.

A friendly and easy going atmosphere is created by the husband and wife team of a resident Manager and Cook/Housekeeper. A full English breakfast and an evening meal are provided to a high quality with a generous and varied menu.

The centre is in a traffic calmed part of the town, on a bus route, about half a mile away from the town centre with it's railway station, bus station and principal shops. Close by in Kirkley there is a secondary shopping area.

Two four wheeled electric buggies are available for hire. Pre-booking is advisable if required and there is ramp access to the rear of the premises at basement level. Very limited parking, which should also be pre-booked, is available at the rear of the Centre on a first come, first served basis. There is a large public car park almost opposite the centre.
